

Man slain by knifer

JAN 23 1978

ALAMEDA — Summoned by neighbors who heard a woman screaming, Alameda police found a 38-year-old man dying of multiple knife wounds in the parking lot of a housing project early this morning.

They identified the victim as Robert David Herrera of 2229 San Jose Ave., who died at Alameda Hospital at 3:42 a.m.

Residents of the Makassar Housing Project at 2100 Pope St. heard the screams and called ~~the~~ police at 2:47 a.m., officers said.

When police arrived they found Mr. Herrera bleeding from several wounds.

He was lying on the pavement of the parking lot near his car, officers said. There was no sign of the woman who had screamed, nor of a tall, thin man whom neighbors had seen running from the parking lot.

Police said they had no suspects.
